Criteria for Shareholders to propose AGM Agenda

Shareholders are welcome to propose agendas that benefit or will benefit the Company's business and shareholders as a whole. Such proposals will be taken into account only when they are practicable and within the Company's scope of power.

1. Criteria

The Company specifies the criteria of proposing AGM agenda as follows:

1.1 The Shareholder who is entitled to propose the agenda may be one shareholder or a group of shareholders who holds ordinary shares, in aggregate not less than 5 (five) percent of the total voting shares of the Company. The Shareholder is requested to fill the attached Form with the following details:

1.1.1 Name, address, telephone number of the shareholder and the amount of shares.

1.1.2 Whether the proposed agenda is for approval or consideration. Additional details for the Board's consideration, for example, facts, reason, issue, other information.

1.1.3 Any necessary information for consideration.

1.2 The Board of Directors reserves the right not to put the agenda proposed by a shareholder in the Meeting if the agenda is any of the followings:

1.2.1 The matter is a normal course of business of the Company and the shareholder fails to show any reasonable doubt as to the abnormality of such matter.

1.2.2 The matter is beyond the scope of the Company's authorities.

1.2.3 The matter has been proposed to the Meeting within the last 12 (twelve) months and received the supporting votes less than 10 (ten) percent of the total votes, provided that there has been no significant change of facts.

1.2.4 The matter is considered by the Board of Directors that it is not necessary to become an agenda, whereby the decision is supported with appropriate reasons explainable to the shareholder.

1.3 A shareholder may propose the agenda by written document and submit to the company secretary. Alternatively, a shareholder may unofficially propose the agenda via the Company's website www.kslgroup.com and then submit the document to the company secretary.

1.4 A shareholder who wishes to propose the agenda may submit the form to the company secretary in the prescribed date from 1 October 2018 to 30 November 2018.

1.5 If the Board of Directors deems it appropriate to put the agenda in the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board shall specify in the Notice of the Meeting that agenda is proposed by a shareholder. If the Board decides that the proposed agenda is not suitable; provided that such decision is supported with appropriate reasons explainable to the shareholder via www.kslgroup.com and disclose to the contact channel of the Stock Exchange of Thailand and notify to the Meeting.

2. Procedure

A shareholder may fill the agenda proposal form as the attachment and submit to the Company during 1 October 2018 to 30 November 2018.
