Nomination for Directorship of the Company

A shareholder may nominate a person who has appropriate qualifications to be a Company's director; provided that consent must be obtained from the nominated person.

1. Criteria

The Company specifies the criteria of nomination for directorship as follows:

1.1 The shareholder who is entitled to nominate a director may be one shareholder or a group of shareholders who holds ordinary shares, in aggregate not less than 5(five) per cent of the total voting shares of the Company. The shareholder is requested to fill the attached Form with the following details:

1.1.1 Name, address, telephone number of the shareholder and the amount of shares

1.1.2 Name of the nominated person with educational background, work experience, other proficiency/qualification, achievement award, the amount of share, company name list of being a director or management or major shareholder, proper qualification for director, and any useful information of the nominated person for the Board of Director's consideration

1.1.3 The Board of Directors may require any necessary information for consideration with appropriate explainable reasons

1.1.4 A letter of consent of the nominating person to be a director

1.2 The Board of Director reserves the right not to propose the person nominated by a shareholder to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders if he/she possesses the following characteristics:

1.2.1 The nominated person does not have certain qualifications or bears prohibited characteristics for directorship in a listed company as stipulated in the law on public company limited, notification of the Securities Exchange Commission, notification of the Stock Exchange of Thailand or other relevant laws.

1.2.2 The nominated person, if elected a director, may have conflict of interest while in duty, for example, being a director or an executive or a major shareholder in a rival company, or a customer or a business partner.

1.2.3 The Board of Directors, upon due consideration, decides that the nominated person is not suitable for directorship; provided that such decision is supported with appropriate reasons explainable to the shareholder.

1.3 A shareholder may nominate a person who has appropriate qualifications to be a Company's director by written document and submit to the company secretary. Alternatively, a shareholder may unofficially nominate a person via the Company's website www.kslsugar.com and then submit the document to the company secretary.

1.4 A shareholder who wishes to nominate a person to be a director may submit the form to the company secretary in the prescribed date from 1 October 2015 to 31 December 2015 in order to be considered by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors to propose to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for directorship appointment.

1.5 If the Board of Directors deems it appropriate to nominate a person to be a director to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board shall specify in the Notice of the Meeting that person is nominated by a shareholder. If the Board decides that the nominated person is not suitable for directorship; provided that such decision is supported with appropriate reasons explainable to the shareholder via www.kslsugar.com and disclose to the contact channel of the Stock Exchange of Thailand and notify to the Meeting.

2. Procedure

A shareholder may fill the attached Forms consisting of (1) Director Nomination Form and (2) Form - Personal Information of the Nominated Person for Directorship, signed by the nominated person and submit both Forms to the Company during 1 October 2015 and 31 December 2015.
